SANDY'S SNIPPETS

A GREAT BIG THANKS to all the April divoteers. The City is super thankful that all of you gals showed up to help. It is not so bad walking Torrey Pines in the morning and in the evening – if I do say so myself! Future volunteer activities will include gardening so get your gloves (and your green thumbs) ready! The timing of the gardening will depend on the city's bid process to buy the plants, so it may be a while.

Pace of play is still a big concern. If you cannot complete your round in under 4 hrs., do not sign up for the 6:30am to 8am slot. If you cannot complete your round in 4 hrs. and 15 minutes, the 8am to 8:30am slot is not for you – move to a later slot. Yes, it may be difficult but in order to meet the 4:30 pace required by our SUP; we need to have a good start.

A reminder from our Handicap Director – whenever you post, put hole-by-hole scores into GHIN.

Ready golf tip – study your putt while others are putting.

HOLE-IN-ONE SIGHTING!

Last Tuesday, April 30th, Chloe Kim had her first hole-in-one! It was on the picturesque 15th hole. The pin was on the back tier, the distance 149 yards. With her trusty 5 hybrid, Chloe found the bottom of the cup.

CONGRATULATIONS CHLOE!

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Yoon Hee Cho has been a member of TPWPC since 2021.

Yoon was born and raised in South Korea. After studying English Literature, she became an ESL teacher and found it very rewarding. Yoon moved to San Diego in 2014.

Her father, being a passionate golfer, encouraged her to learn and join the family sport.

Yoon has not had a hole-in-one but she is hoping to have her first one at Torrey.

If Yoon could choose to play ANY course in the world, it would be the Old Course at St Andrews, the "Home of Golf." From what she told me, the many local distilleries factored into that choice! It is apparent Yoon enjoys a dram (or three!) of whiskey!

A dream foursome for Yoon would include playing with 2 icons, Se-ri Pak and Annika Sorenstam and her favorite young player, Sung Hyun Park.

Rules Corner

Question: What happens if you whiff or dribble your tee shot?

Answer: It depends where your ball ends up. Either way, it counts as 1 stroke. If you whiff, the ball is still sitting on the tee and you can hit again which would be your 2nd shot. If you dribble the ball off the tee, then it depends on whether the ball is still in the teeing area. The teeing area is from the front edge of the tee markers to two club lengths behind the tee markers.

If the ball is in the teeing area, you may play the ball as it lies or you may move the ball to any other spot within the teeing area and play from there without penalty. You may also place the ball on a tee or adjust the height of the tee.(Rule 6.2b(6))

If the ball goes beyond teeing area, and you wish to retee, you will be using stroke and distance rule, and incur a 1-stroke penalty. Or you can hit from where the ball lies without penalty – you will be hitting your second shot.

If you hit your ball off the tee during a practice swing by accident, you can retee without penalty and you will be hitting your first shot.
